Sincerely yours,

The number of applications for Eliot House was far greater than the number of places to be filled, and I deeply regret that it has not been possible to admit you. If, in your application, you named another House as your second choice, your blank will be turned over to the Master of that House for his consideration. If you named no second choice, and still desire to be admitted to one of the Houses, you should at once file another application blank at University C.

C. M. Hardenbergh, Esq.
